

Safe Handling 'F' Gases and ODS substances Course F-Gas Category IV - BESA Accreditation

Course Overview:

A 2 day F-Gas category 4 training course for persons undertaking leak checking of stationary refrigeration or heat-pump equipment containing Fluorinated (F) gases or Ozone Depleting Substances (ODS).

Learners would benefit from an existing understanding of refrigeration systems, principals and theory.

Who Is This Course For:

Category 4 applicants are regarded as new entrants to the industry and as such, are without a relevant related qualification and/or experience, entering employment for the first time or changing career direction.

Key Learning Areas Covered In This Course:

- Requirements of statutory regulation/legislation.
- Identification of leakage risks.
- Leak checking and record keeping.

Assessment process:

40 Question, Multiple Choice Online exam & Practical Assessment

What qualifications will you achieve?

This course incorporates assessment and F-Gas Category IV certification by BESA.

Class Sizes?

Maximum of 4 Candidates per class

Course Duration / Location:

2 day training course, available in Telford, Shropshire

Course Fees:

£495.00 per candidate

